

SPLASH OUT – SWIMMING FACILITIES IN CAMBRIDGE

You are in Cambridge now. Your friends (1–5) would like to visit a swimming pool of the town. Which swimming pool (A–E) would you recommend to your friends? If you cannot find a suitable swimming pool, use Ø.

Indicate your answers on the green answer sheet.

1. Mari would like to teach her 6-year-old son to swim.
2. Tamás would like to play water polo.
3. Zsuzsa wants to play with her 2-year-old child in shallow water.
4. Petra would like to swim and then relax in the sun.
5. János is planning to go with his friend, who is a wheelchair user.

A) PARKSIDE POOL

Cambridge's largest indoor facility is located on the corner of Parker's Piece, on Mill Road and provides a 33.53 x 12.8 metre main pool. In addition, there is a health suite with sauna and steam room. The pool provides a wide programme of activities.

B) ABBEY POOL

This pool is situated in Whitehill Road to the east of Cambridge and near Coldhams Common. It has a five lane, 25 metre pool. A hoist is available for pool access together with the provision of changing and shower facilities and parking spaces for people with disabilities.

C) SHEEPS GREEN POOL

This small pool in the south of the city is situated in a quiet, pleasant area by the river Cam. The pool is 10 x 6 metres but only 0.8 metres deep, making it ideal for children learning to swim. All facilities are free of charge and there is an attendant on duty from 10am to 6pm during the season. There is no access to the pool for wheelchair users.

D) JESUS GREEN POOL

Cambridge's largest pool is one of the few remaining examples of the lidos (open air swimming pools). Set in an idyllic position by the river Cam, it is also one of the longest such pools still operating in the country. Jesus Green Pool has spacious changing facilities with plenty of grassed and paved areas for sunbathing. Access for people with disabilities is poor.

E) CHERRY HINTON WATER PLAY AREA

This paddling pool is in the beautiful grounds of Cherry Hinton Hall and has two small pools with a connecting bridge and play area. The water shelves gently to a maximum depth of 0.4 metres and the pools are fenced for safety. There is a picnic area together with car parking and toilets nearby.
